Vandal Glass would like to announce that GandGDirect is our trusted source for Pjur lubricants. The greatest lubricant in the world (So we think).

Vandal Glass would also like to thank Robin E. of Long Beach, CA for writing a fantastic review after our encounter at Erotica L.A.

After the Vandal Crew read her inspirational piece, we decided to send Robin a free toy of her choice. How could we not?

Maybe you should write us a review!

Who knows how generous we're feeling?
